WHAT TO EXPECT

at the show

Calling all yachting enthusiasts! One of the top boat shows in the world is just around the corner — February 14-18, 2024.

SHOW OVERVIEW

The Miami International Boat Show is undeniably one of the world's largest boat and yacht shows, with an incredible impact of around 1.34 billion dollars. Drawing in over 100,000 visitors and showcasing over 1000 brands and boats yearly, this event is a must-see for yacht enthusiasts.

You'll have the opportunity to explore six different locations at the show. The on-land portion will be held at the Miami Beach Convention Center and Pride Park, while the in-water components can be enjoyed at One Herald Plaza, Venetian Marina, Museum Park Marina, and IGY Yacht Haven Grande at Island Gardens.

Prepare to be amazed as this bigger, more luxurious, and accessible yachting event presents a wide range of aquatic wonders. From kayaks, day boats, and marine accessories to opulent superyachts, hardcore sportfish yachts and mega yachts, there will be something for everyone to enjoy!

TRANSPORTATION, FOOD AND parking

Water Taxi Between Locations

Instead of dealing with on-land traffic between show locations, visitors can opt to use the water taxi at the show for only $10 per day. The taxi runs one hour before and after the show's scheduled times. Please note, the water taxi tickets are date-specific. The water taxi loops are as follows:

Venetian Marina > Herald Plaza > Museum Park Marina/FEC Docks (loop)

Convention Center > Herald Plaza > Maurice Gibb Park > Museum Park Marina/FEC Docks (loop)

Herald Plaza > SuperYacht Miami at Yacht Haven Grande Miami

Food Options at the Miami Boat Show

Indulge in a delightful array of flavors at DBMIBS while also enjoying the breathtaking scenery. The boat show presents exceptional dining experiences and inventive cocktails crafted by esteemed partners such as Budweiser, Goslings, Tanqueray, Ketel One, and Crown Royal.

Parking Options at the Boat Show

Don't let the size of the event scare you. Aside from the many parking options dedicated for the show, Informa also partnered with SpotHero — a digital parking marketplace — where drivers can reserve and pay for parking in parking lots, garages, and valet up to 50% off drive-up. Other parking options include Herald Plaza parking and Miami Beach Conventions parking.
